What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk Indicator

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 15 years.

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you. We have classified this product as 3 out of 7, which is a medium-low risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium-low level, and poor market conditions could impact the capacity of LIC UK to pay you. It will provide a lump sum of 101% of the value of your investment if you die while the bond is in place, as at the date of death. If LIC UK is not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

Performance Scenarios

This table shows the money you could get back over the next 15 years, under different scenarios, assuming that you invest £10,000 in the Balanced Managed Fund. The scenarios shown illustrate how your investment could perform. You can compare them with the scenarios of other products. The scenarios presented are an estimate of future performance based on evidence from the past on how the value of this investment varies and are not an exact indicator. What you get will vary depending on how the market performs and how long you keep the product. The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances, and it does not take into account the situation where we are not able to pay you. The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, and includes the costs of your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back. Do not forget that inflation would reduce what you could buy in the future with the amounts shown.

What happens if LIC UK is unable to pay out?

If we are unable to pay you what you are owed under the policy terms, then you may be able to reclaim some of your investment through the Financial Services Compensation scheme. The details are available at <https://www.fscs.org.uk/what-we-cover/>. There are no limitations or conditions attached to this scheme.

What are the costs?

The Reduction in Yield (RIY) shows what impact the total costs you pay will have on the investment return you might get. The total costs take into account one-off, ongoing and incidental costs. LIC UK reserves the right to alter the charges. The amounts shown here are the cumulative costs of the product itself, for three different holding periods under the moderate scenario. The figures assume you invest £10,000. The figures are estimates and may change in the future.

How long should I hold it and can I take money out early?

Recommended holding period: 15 years

The recommended holding period has been selected to enable investors to benefit from long term growth whilst avoiding short term volatility.

You can withdraw part or all of your money at any time, without any charges, however the bond is a medium to long term investment and not suitable if you are likely to cash it in after a short period. After the first 12 months you can ask to receive regular automatic withdrawals, with a minimum of £50. These can be made monthly, quarterly, half-yearly or yearly. Single lump sum withdrawals may also be made, subject to a minimum of £500. Partial encashment will not be available if the amount remaining in any one fund is less than £500. Withdrawals of more than 5% in any one policy year give rise to a chargeable event.
