What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk Indicator

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 20 years.

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you. We have classified this product as 3 out of 7, which is a medium-low risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium-low level, and poor market conditions could impact the capacity of LIC UK to pay you. You are guaranteed a cash sum, plus any bonuses to date, if you die during the savings period, or on maturity, assuming that all premiums due have been paid. If LIC UK is not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

Performance Scenarios

This table shows the money you could get back over the next 20 years, under different scenarios, assuming that you invest £1,000 per annum. The scenarios shown illustrate how your investment could perform. You can compare them with the scenarios of other products. The scenarios presented are an estimate of future performance based on evidence from the past on how the value of this investment varies and are not an exact indicator. What you get will vary depending on how the market performs and how long you keep the product. The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances, and it does not take into account the situation where we are not able to pay you. The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, and includes the costs of your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation or the Accident Benefit, which may also affect how much you get back. Do not forget that inflation would reduce what you could buy in the future with the amounts shown.

What happens if LIC UK is unable to pay out?

If we are unable to pay you what you are owed under the policy terms, then you may be able to reclaim some of your investment through the Financial Services Compensation scheme. The details are available at <https://www.fscs.org.uk/what-we-cover/>. There are no limitations or conditions attached to this scheme.

What are the costs?

How long should I hold it and can I take money out early?

Recommended holding period: 20 years

The recommended holding period has been selected to enable investors to benefit from long term growth whilst avoiding short term volatility.

You can cash in your plan whenever you like, but if you cash in early the amount you receive is not guaranteed and may be less than you have contributed. If you've paid contributions for less than 2 years, the plan will lapse with no value. You may also incur tax liability on early encashments.
